

Fontev ecchia and D'Amico v. Argentina

I. COMPLIANCE AND FOLLOW-UP ADDENDUM¹

October 18, 2017: The State failed to comply with two of the Court's orders.² First, the State failed to overturn the civil judgment against Mr. Jorge Fontev ecchia and Mr. Héctor D'Amico, as well as reimburse them for its consequences.³ Second, the State failed to compensate the victims and their representatives for the costs and expenses incurred during the litigation.⁴ The Court noted that although the State submitted a report indicating its efforts to reimburse the victims, the State never adopted the resolution to that effect, and the compensation provided was below the amount required by the Court.⁵

Therefore, the Court ordered that the State promptly adopt the necessary measures to comply with the two pending reparations.⁶ The Court also required the State to submit a report to the Court showing the measures it had adopted by February 28, 2018.⁷ Additionally, the representatives of the victims should submit any observations to the State's report within four to six weeks of receipt.⁸ The Court will continue to monitor compliance with respect to the foregoing orders.⁹
